

Resident Spotlight

David

Meet David! He grew up in Sacramento, California. He has three children; Chris, Whitney and Jake, and a granddaughter named Lily. David loves Nascar and was a race car driver for over 20 years. He has also been a drummer for over 50 years and played in many different bands. Additional to these accomplishments, he has also been quite the entrepreneur. David owned Geeayes Pick-Up Parts and Tri-Cities Towing. David has an amazing sense of humor and we love having him as a part of our community!

Team Member Spotlight

Izzy

Meet Izzy! She helps in many different departments around the community. Izzy is a kitchen server, life enrichment assistant, and an assistant to the Executive Director. In her free time, she likes to read, watch drama movies, paddleboard, and simply loves being outside. She is getting ready to start school to become a high school math teacher and some day wants to go sky diving. Thank you for all the joy and smiles to bring to our community!

Margy enjoying her new bracelet from beading hour!

Nita sharing the bunny that she made during craft hour!

Gretchen singing to us during karaoke. She can hit those notes on point!

The last few months, we have been spoiled with flower donations! The residents have loved making flower arrangements!

Spring Fun

We enjoyed some flower arranging. We had so many beautiful flowers to work with! Nita, Katie, and Izzy pictured.

We also had tons of fun playing a unique spin on cornhole— water balloon cornhole! Donna, Anna Jo, and Cecilia pictured.

We are looking forward to a fun-filled May ahead!

HAPPY Birthday
